YOUTHBUILD

What Is YouthBuild?

YouthBuild is a real opportunity for you to receive the skills and knowledge you need to build a better life for yourself.

A college and career preparation program, YouthBuild uses the latest construction training curriculum to provide classroom and hands-on experience. You'll earn nationally recognized certificates while actually building a home for low income families

Not every YouthBuild graduate decides to follow a career in construction. However, all of our graduates learn the employability skills they need to be successful.

You'll Receive Hands-On Job Training.

You'll rotate through classroom and hands-on training in the field. By working on real world projects and volunteering to serve your community, you'll gather experience that will give you an advantage when you start looking for your first career job.

Learn Skills for Your Life and Career.

Youthbuild teaches you hands on real world skills that lead to career and personal success.
